CONDITIONS OF SALE.

FIRSTLY.—The highest bidder to be the buyer; and if any dispute arise between two or more bidders, the lot in dispute to be put up again and re-sold.

SECONDLY.—No person to advance at each bidding less than one shilling; above two pounds, two shillings and six pence and so on in proportion.

THIRDLY.—Each buyer to pay down immediately, if required, 5s. in the pound in part payment for each lot, and to give in his or her name and place of abode. In the event of any purchaser buying more lots than one, he is not to be entitled to clear one lot without at the same time clearing the whole of his purchase, and any deposit paid is to be applicable to any or every lot so purchased.

FOURTHLY.—The Auctioneer will not be answerable for the description of any of the lots, and no warranty or guarantee whatever is given or to be implied in respect of any lot or lots, but the same are to be paid for and taken away, with all faults and errors of every kind, at the purchaser's expense, before Five o'Clock on the day after the Sale.

FIFTHLY.—The purchasers or their agents are to be answerable for all damage they may do to the premises in taking down or removing their respective lots, and to properly repair the same before or immediately after their lots are removed from the premises. All lots are at the purchasers' risk after the fall of the hammer.

LASTLY.—Upon failure of complying with any of the above Conditions, the deposit-money to be forfeited, the lot or lots to be re-sold by public or private sale, and the deficiency (if any) occasioned by such re-sale, together with all charges attending the same, to be made good by the defaulter at the present sale.

In the case of Auction Room Sales, all lots not taken away by the specified time, whether paid for or not, will be charged sixpence per lot per day for warehouse room.
